'RELIEF' IS DEMANDED BY JAPAN

Two Nations' Notes on Alien Ownership Are Made Public

Measure Declared to Be "Invidiously Discriminatory"

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Japan is again demanding in emphatic and uncompromising terms relief for her subjects from what are called "invidiously discriminatory" effects of the California alien ownership law. This was revealed today in connection with the simultaneous publication in Washington and Tokyo of diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Japanese governments extending over a period of more than a year.

The last Japanese communication, dated June 16 last, reopening the "agony" over the law, for an answer to the note handed Secretary Bryan August 26, 1913, by Viscount Chinda, the ambassador here, and the American reply, sent by Bryan two days ago, were not made public. They were said to reach Tokyo in time for publication there, with the rest of the correspondence, so it was agreed that it should be given out later.

The note of August 26 concluded: "The Imperial government claims for them (its subjects) fair and equal treatment and are unable either to acquiesce in the unjust and obnoxious discrimination complained of, to regard the question as closed, so long as the existing state of things is permitted to continue."

It is disclosed that a new treaty was discussed as a possible way around the difficulties presented by the problem, but that the Japanese government would tend only to create new trouble, proposed to renew the negotiations where they left off last August, and, virtually, to begin all over again. In diplomatic circles here suggestions were heard today that the way was being paved for submission of the matter to the Hague for arbitration in spite of the contention that the division of power in the United States between the Federal and state governments makes such a step impossible.

But as late as June 16, two weeks ago, the Japanese ambassador, Viscount Chinda, left Secretary Bryan "instructions" from the Tokyo foreign office that the projected

Cough and Cow Lead To Peace Conference

An irritating cough which Mrs. Johanna Mayer, 5937 Congress street, believed was due to a cold, and a neighbor, to be used exclusively for her presence as a means of insulting her, and the fact that Frederick's permitted his pet cow to pasture on her geraniums, led to the arrest of Frederick's and a lengthy court hearing before Judge Samuel. A score of women were subpoenaed to testify, and several of them could speak German but not English.

Judge Samuel acted in the capacity of chief pacifier rather than as judge, and even went so far as to act as interpreter as well as after spending half an hour wandering through the intricacies of German grammar and of the peculiar psychological twists by which Mrs. Mayer came to construe every action of Frederick's as a matter of insult and a means of disturbing her peace and dignity. Judge Samuel finally induced the two opponents to shake hands. The case was dismissed.

Need Safecrackers To Find Moore Will

Safecrackers will have to be employed to assist in locating the last will and testament of the late A. A. Moore Jr., who was killed in an automobile accident near Merced a week ago. With the granting of special letters of administration yesterday to his widow, Florence B. Moore, it was stated by Attorney Elliott Johnson that the will had been found.

SUMATRA IS VISITED BY DISASTER

Hundreds Are Dead or Injured on Stricken Island

BATAVIA, Java., June 26.—Hundreds were killed or injured today in a violent earthquake, which caused widespread loss in southern Sumatra.

The offices of the Dutch Resident and many other buildings collapsed at Benkoelen, the capital.

Telegraph and cable communication was interrupted.

The British steamer Kintuck of the China Mutual Steam Navigation Company, crowded with emigrants was reported ten hours over due, and it was feared she had met with an accident in connection with the earthquake.

A steamer has been sent from here to search for her.

Sumatra is the largest island of the Malay archipelago except Borneo. It has a number of volcanoes, some active and some believed extinct. The population is estimated at 3,500,000, among whom are about 5000 whites.

Warm Wave Sweeps Bay Cities Section

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—A warm wave is sweeping over the bay cities today. The wind shifted to the north last night, causing a very pleasant evening and held off the cooling fog which usually drifts in from the ocean harbors. The mercury began climbing at 5 o'clock this morning in this region. At 8 a. m. it was 52 degrees and shortly before noon 72 had been registered. Prospects are for continued warm weather tonight and tomorrow for the entire state, including the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys. The depression causing the present condition has moved northeastward. Very warm weather is reported in the central portion of the country and cool in New England and plateau region.

TWO DEAD, MANY HURT IN YOSEMITE RAILWAY ACCIDENT

Mrs. J. H. Brooks, Daughter, and Miss Rhodes, of Alameda, Among Worst Injured; County Surveyor and Conductor Killed

SEVEN Oakland people, three Alameda women and several from San Francisco, all more or less injured, will return to their homes today after a terrifying experience of last night when they went through the wreck on the Merced river in which two men were killed and nine hurt, when two cars, leaving the tracks of the Yosemite Railroad, plunged into the water, turning upside down in its careening flight over the bank. Stonewall Jackson Harris, county assessor of Mariposa county, was crushed to death between the cars.

John C. Mahoney, conductor of the train, was drowned. The accident occurred last night at 10:30, as Train No. 3 was returning from the Yosemite. The injured:

MRS. J. H. BROOKS, 2034 San Antonio ave., Alameda; badly cut and bruised.

MISS GLADYS BROOKS, her daughter, also bruised, and possible internal injuries.

MISS LOIS RHODES, Alameda; cuts, contusions, bruises and shock.

S. A. WARNER, 1356 East Twenty-seventh street, Oakland; bruises and contusions.

MISS MARION MCBRIDE, of Oakland, slightly bruised.

J. A. HOOTS, Oakland; bruised and cut.

OAKLANDERS TO RETURN.

J. A. Hoots, with his wife and daughters, and S. A. Warner, all left for the Yosemite in Hoots automobile and will arrive in Oakland, according to word received here, late this afternoon. All underwent medical treatment at Yosemite. Mrs. Warner, 1356 East Twenty-seventh street, received word from her son today that he was not badly injured. He had intended to come home by motor, she declares, but the machine broke down. Hoots resides at 326 Twenty-first street. Both his daughters are employed in the Oakland Public Library.

Colonel Edward Fletcher of San Diego was the hero of the occasion. Struggling with a painful leg to the station at Bagby, six miles away, he reached a telephone and summoned aid to the wrecked train. The cars, he declares, fell fully twenty feet down the embankment.

Passengers vied with each other in assisting the injured to safety through the heavy current of the river which swirled about them.

The train was a combination passenger and baggage train, consisting of one passenger coach, two Pullman sleepers and the baggage cars. Both Pullmans kept the rails, as did the locomotive, the passenger and baggage coach meeting with disaster. The locomotive was wrenched by the pull of the plunging cars, one driving wheel becoming dislocated.

BROKEN RAIL, SUPPOSED CAUSE.

The train was proceeding at a fair rate of speed when the accident happened. It is believed that a defective rail was the cause of the disaster. Suddenly, without warning of any kind, the two cars directly behind the engine left the tracks with a grinding wrench, rolling over into the gully as the couplings to the engine and Pullmans snapped with the strain. The screams of passengers were mingled with the scraping of the sides of the cars on the stone sides of the embankment as the cars hit the swiftly-flowing water with a splash. Several passengers, escaping from the car windows, swam ashore. The cars were not more than half-submerged, striking near the edge of the river bank in shallow water. The swift current, however, rendered it almost impossible to reach them.

County Surveyor Harris, who was in the passenger coach, leaped for the forward exit as the cars left the rails, and was caught between the coaches. He was killed almost instantly, his

In reply the Japanese ambassador presented a long discussion on the interpretation of the treaty, still maintaining the claim of rights conferred on Japanese. It was argued that the power to regulate questions of land ownership did not reside in the states exclusively, otherwise the United States could not have agreed to the treaties of 1894 and 1911. The ambassador argued that it was the first time that a nation having a favored nation treaty "had been placed at a disadvantage as compared with non-treaty countries"

NO TRACE IS FOUND OF LOST ESTIMATOR

Word was received here from the parties of tractors searching the hills for traces of Louis Margolin, lumber estimator for the government, lost near North Fork, Madera County, indicates that the man was probably killed during the recent electric storm. No trace has been found of him, and he has been missing for six days.

The man, who is a Harvard and Cornell graduate, and who made his headquarters in the bay region, was reported lost following storms of last Saturday in the North Fork hills. His tracks were blotted out by the weather. It is feared he may have fallen from a cliff.

MAYOR SENDS PICTURE TO COMMERCIAL CLUB

The big picture of the new city hall, which for some time past has occupied a place of honor in the Mayor's office, is from now on to grace the walls of the Oakland Commercial Club. The picture, a water color sketch, about 8 feet in height, was executed by the architect as a present to Mayor Mott. The mayor has placed it in the commercial club and has also given the organization permission to exhibit it at any exposition or public occasion desired.

CUTTING WILL ATTACKED BY WIDOW

She Demands Half of $1,000,000 Estate Left by Packer.

Mrs. Alice M. Cutting, widow of the late Francis Cutting, the notorious fruit packer, who died a year ago, has commenced proceedings in the superior court to have his last will and testament declared void on the grounds that she was appointed executrix and asks for one-half of the large estate.

Six months before his death Cutting married his second wife, who now appears in contest over the estate. It was agreed whereby his wife was to receive $250 per month from his estate during her lifetime. These provisions were made in the codicil to the will, dated in April, 1913. The will was drawn in October, 1912, prior to the marriage.

Cutting left large bequests to charitable institutions and to relatives. The Pacific Cultural School was bequeathed $100,000, but this amount was later cut down on the showing made that the amount was larger than the legal limit.

Frederick P. Cutting, a son; Alfred D. Cutting, a brother of Cutting's first wife, and Attorney H. H. Chackering were named executors of the will. Portions of the estate have been admitted to probate under protest.

The Cuttings were married May 10, 1913.

NEW GARBAGE WHARF PLACED IN COMMISSION

Garbage hoppers have been erected and the refuse is being handled in the most sanitary manner possible.

body being frightfully mangled by the two grinding vehicles as they careened to the water.

The accident happened shortly after 10:30 o'clock last night. An inquiry is being made into the cause. The work of rescue was exceedingly difficult by reason of the position of the wreck. The trouble occurred two miles east of Bagby. There were about fifty passengers on the train. With the axes at hand they chopped away the wreckage from about those who were hurt.

The train left El Portal at 8 o'clock in the evening and then the wreck occurred.

All of the injured were taken to hospitals.

Conductor Mahoney jumped into the baggage compartment of the combination coach in an effort to open the baggage door. It is supposed he must have been hurled forward through the open door as the car fell and that his body has been washed away by the swift stream. Search for it was unavailing.

The train was due to leave El Portal for Merced at 8 o'clock last night, but was slightly delayed, and at the time of the accident was one mile east of North Fork, a point where the right of way overhangs the river.

Delay in getting out any word of the accident added to the hardships of the bruised, wounded, wet and frightened passengers.

The nearest telephone was six miles away, and it was after midnight before the news of the injury reached, and not until this morning, that a rescue train made up in the small hours of the night, brought the wounded and the dead to a hospital here.

This is the second accident on the Yosemite Valley railroad in the last two days. A derailment earlier yesterday delayed the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe sleeping cars for several hours.

DARKNESS ADDS TO TERROR.

Darkness and danger of fire added to the horror of the situation. Only the light of a few lanterns was available to the rescuers. Men and women worked frantically to haul the imprisoned passengers to safety from the cars, half submerged in the icy water. The imprisoned passengers were in grave danger of drowning as the cars filled. One of the cars split open in the crash and from this passengers made an easy escape.

Edward Fletcher, who brought down from the station six mules away, although himself injured, tells the following graphic story of the wreck:

"I was in the sleeping car when the crash came, hurling me from bed. Hurrying out I saw the Pullmans on the edge of a 60 or 65-foot embankment, sliding down below the passenger, smoking car and baggage coach, and nearly half submerged in Merced river. The engine was off the track, but safe.

CARS OVERTURN.

"The cars had turned upside down. The smoker broke open completely and the conductor was thrown into the river. His body has not been found.

"Grabbing a light from a porter I rushed down and slipped to the side of the day coach and helped a man out. Calling for help I soon had three or four good men with me. We pulled out of that window eight women and three men, all badly bruised and nearly helpless.

"The brakeman's legs were broken. One woman has a fractured hip and is hurt internally. Several women are badly hurt. One poor fellow from British Columbia is so badly injured he will surely die.

"Altogether there are two dead, one or two probably fatally or seriously injured and about six who are slightly injured. If the wreck had taken fire it would have been too horrible to contemplate. The engineer came down and helped. On asking him if anything had been done to secure aid, he said 'No.'

"So Mr. H. B. Griffiths, a lawyer from Oakland, started to flag a log train we had passed a short time before, and it was none too soon, as we were on a bad curve.

"At the engineer's request I started for Bagby, the nearest station, nearly six miles below, for help. It was the worst walk and run down that dark, black canyon I ever experienced. On my way down I sprained my leg, but not seriously, by stepping through a hole in the dark while going over a high trestle.

"At Bagby I telephoned for a train, doctors, etc., and four or five hours after the accident they arrived, all doing everything possible to help the injured. Special mention should be made of H. B. Griffiths and S. A. Warner, both of Oakland; also Mrs. Z. W. Potter and Mrs. Mabel MacBride, Y. W. C. A., both of Oakland, and Dr. Susan Harris Hamilton of Mountain View, near the accident. These three women, all school teachers and nurses, for five hours did wonderful work in helping the injured."

DEATH SUMMONS CANDY MERCHANT

C. T. Barton, Partner of Ye Liberty Store, Succumbs After Brief Illness.

Following a brief illness, Charles T. Barton, merchant of Oakland and Sacramento, and for five years a partner in the firm of Barton and Stephenson, operating Ye Liberty Store, died last night at his Oakland home, 2331 Webster street. Death was caused by chronic kidney trouble. For some time past he had been ill, but death was declared to be sudden.

Barton came to Oakland from Sacramento, where he was a pioneer in the bakery business, buying an interest in the local candy store which he for some time was in active management of.

A short time ago he also established another bakery business in Sacramento, and divided his time between the two cities.

He was 51 years of age and a member of several fraternal orders and other organizations. He is survived by a widow and three children. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the deceased, 2331 Webster street. Close friends and business associates will act as pallbearers.

MRS. CAMINETTI TALKS ON POLITICS

Says American Men Are Finest and Best in the World.

should—but she says she isn't going to run, so what's the use of supposing? Anyway, she exposed the mere man politician and his osculation-with-a-motive, and hereafter if women are wise the wives of Cupid won't be the wives of the vote-getter and the ward-healer. The day of the osculating candidate is past if Mrs. Caminetti's expose has its effect, and still if it has its effect—then a woman may run for office without doing practical politics.

TELLS OF AMERICAN MAN.

Mrs. Caminetti was the guest yesterday of Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby, on Monte Vista avenue. She led the women in a discussion of the politics of today. She spoke on the income tax, the Democratic administration and on the American man.

"He's the finest man in the world," she declared, "the best and the most gallant, and his gallantry is due to suffrage."

"Aren't they gallant because they know there's a vote in it?" she was asked by one of the women.

"Well," said Mrs. Caminetti, "of course men aspire for political honors used to kiss the babies, and now they kiss the mothers."

Regarding her rumored candidacy for the office of lieutenant governor, Mrs. Caminetti declared there was "nothing to it."

"Some of my friends," she declared, "have urged me to run, but one politician in the family is enough. I am not a candidate."

Speaking in general of Democratic policies and the Democratic administration, Mrs. Caminetti praised President Wilson, declaring that he will some day be recognized as the best president since Lincoln's time.

SITUATION DIFFICULT.

"It is hard," she declared, "to do one's duty in a storm of prejudice and criticism. I believe if President Wilson is permitted to carry out his policies in the Mexican situation they will in the end be recognized as the best and wisest. He is considering the greatest good for the greatest number, and is grappling with problems handed down by his predecessors."

Mrs. Carrie Hoyt of Alameda, vice-president of the club, made a short address setting forth the aims of the club. She emphasized the fact that aside from politics the organization was a powerful agent for good and that it is recognized as a power among women's organizations.

Miss Mary Fairbrother, private secretary to James D. Phelan, spoke on politics and current issues. Eight new members were added to the club at the meeting and refreshments were served.

TO PROCEED WITH S. P. DEPOT CONSTRUCTION

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—The last attempt to deprive San Francisco of a new passenger depot under construction by the Southern Pacific Company at Third and Townsend streets, was blocked today when the State Railroad Commission denied the protest of the Fourth Street Improvement Club. The progress of the railroad's project to build a magnificent passenger station to handle the 1915 traffic has been twice threatened. Referendum petitions were circulated and almost a sufficient number of names obtained to prevent the starting of work on the structure. Mayor Rolph and the city fathers had paved the way for the erection of the depot and fortunately the promoters of the petitions have not been quite industrious enough and the work which had been temporarily halted, was allowed to come on. Next came the Fourth Street Improvement Club protesting that the depot should be built on Townsend street near Fourth, so that the trains could back into the yard clear to Third street, giving an opportunity for a longer stretch of cars. The railroad, which had already begun construction, argued that they could not possibly make the change desired and as Fourth street had been shoved westward to bring about this very end, they fought the case before the Railroad Commission. Commissioner Gordon decided that the Southern Pacific Company should go ahead with their present plans.

HAYWARD, June 24.—A membership of 500 farmers on the Alameda County Farm Bureau by July 1 is necessary if the county is to be in the running for a farm adviser. The membership campaign committee which is working in two divisions known as the "Reds" and the "Blues" reports that 410 members have been secured. Considerably over 100 additional members are expected before the beginning of July.

That the issue of the campaign shall be in no doubt, President H. R. Robinson, secretary J. L. Welsh and the directors of the bureau are "winning up" agriculturists all over the county who have not yet joined. Scores of letters exhorting the co-operation of the farmer in order that an adviser may be secured, are being sent out.

FAMINE IN BESIEGED CITY

Disorder Reigns Among the Hungry at Guaymas

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, La Paz, Lower California, June 25, by wireless to San Diego, June 26.—According to information received from Guaymas today, conditions there are daily growing worse. No flour is being received to replenish the supply that gave out entirely a day or two ago and other kinds of food are scarce.

The authorities in the besieged city appear powerless to check constantly recurring disorders among the hungry and turbulent populace. There is much unrest among the troops of the Federal garrison.

The federal governor-general has issued orders permitting various civilians, mostly women and children, to leave Guaymas. About 500 have taken advantage of the orders.

Desertions among the soldiers continue. A volunteer company, Yucatán Indians, killed two of their officers today and then went over to the Constitutionalists.

TO ATTACK SAN LUIS POTOSI

Constitutionalists of Mexico are determined to carry their military campaign to the conquest of San Luis Potosi. Participation in informal mediation conferences desired by the United States. Their plan was indicated here today on the arrival of Alfredo Breceda, private secretary of General Carranza, first chief of the constitutionalists, who came to confer with Carranza's Washington agents.

Confirmatory of the military plans of the constitutionalists was the news that General Villa plans to attack San Luis Potosi next week and expects later to fight the federalists in their last stand at Queretaro.

Soon after the arrival of Breceda he received a telegram from General

Carranza announcing that the first chief had received assurances of co-operation and support from the leading generals of the revolution, including Villa, and he wished the people of the United States to know that the cause of the revolutionary movement was progressing without dissension.

As to the prospect of participation by the constitutionalists in the informal conference over Mexico's internal affairs, Breceda frankly stated that he had no definite knowledge.

Breceda conferred with Luis Carranza, one of Carranza's confidential agents here, who is urging participation in the mediation, and later with Rafael Zubaran, chief Washington agent of the constitutionalists.

Breceda, who does not speak English, said of his mission, through an interpreter:

"I have no instructions personally to confer with your secretary of state or your President. Perhaps my colleagues here might do so."

Carranza, after his morning conference with Breceda, was in an optimistic mood.

about the mediation plans said: "I know nothing yet. We must confer later today with General Carranza."

PLACE OF PARLEY UNCERTAIN. NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 26. Mediators and American and Huerta delegates were inactive today awaiting definite word from the Constitutionalists agency in Washington as to the time and place for the informal conference between the opposing Mexican factions.

It is considered unlikely the parleys between the Huerta and Constitutionalists representatives would take place here, nor is it probable that any city in the United States would be chosen for the conference. Ottawa and several resorts on Lake Ontario have been mentioned. The Huerta delegates refused to comment on the taking of Zacatecas.

SUFFER GREATEST DEFEAT.

ZACATECAS, Mex., June 25 (delayed over military wires).—There is no longer any doubt that the Federalists sustained in the loss of this city the most crushing defeat suffered by them so far in the present revolution. It was learned today from a survey of their fortifications that they had anticipated holding their positions here for months.

In no previous instance had so many earthworks been thrown up, or had the scheme of defense been planned so ably. The miles of trenches, stone parapets and the many small earthworks forts which fell before the Constitutionalists one after another in eight hours on the last day of the battle testified to this fact. In no single instance were these positions gained up without a desperate fight.

The troops of Villa's army scaled barren hillsides, where footing seemed impossible. Whole lines of the attacking parties were cut down, but always they were others to take their places. When finally the top of the hill or mountain was reached, the Federalists would rush headlong down the further side, only to be moved down by the Constitutionalists.

PRESS ON, UNTIRING.

All day long Tuesday the Villa men, led by their commander-in-chief, pressed forward in this manner and at sundown the city was in their hands. Owing to the nature of the ground and the necessity of being economical in the use of ammunition, the firing at no time was voluminous. The fire of the Constitutionalists was excellent and their effort to make every count resulted in desultory shooting. Sporadic outbursts of fire occurred after the attackers had scaled mountain sides and were out of view of the defenders. There would ensue strained silences to be broken by volleys from the Federalists as soon as the enemy came into sight. In many cases the Constitutionalists did not enter, but continued up the slope until the Federalists fled down the other side of the hill. So far distant were the artillery positions of the Constitutionalists that they were unable to employ most of their pieces.

FEDERAL ARTILLERY FAILS.

The objective point that had to be reached by the attacking party lay in the basin surrounded by two chains of mountains and their foothills. The valleys are deep and frequently bisected by canyons. This made it impossible for the Federalists to use their artillery effectively. Once the Constitutionalists had reached a mountain side it was difficult for their own artillery to support them, on account of the steep slopes and narrow crests, which made fire more dangerous to friend than to enemy.

The Constitutionalists were in position four days. They were exposed alternately to drenching rains, scorching sun and chilling cold of the night, which exists at this altitude—a height above sea level of from 8000 to 12,000 feet—with one brief respite of rain and practically no food. The Federalists held to their positions valiantly, but were overwhelmed by the fierce onslaught of Villa's men.

TERMINAL FREIGHT RATES IN ISSUE

Contentions of San Jose, Santa Clara and Marysville Are Heard.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—The contention of San Jose, Santa Clara and Marysville, that they are being discriminated against by the railroads in the matter of terminal freight rates, was heard today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Testimony began today with the introduction of evidence by A. E. Alexander, representing San Jose and Santa Clara, that those cities are true terminal points and do compete for business with other terminal points allowed the special low terminal rates.

At the same time, when Santa Rosa, which has never enjoyed a terminal rate, convinced the Interstate Commerce Commission that Santa Clara, San Jose and Marysville, which did have terminal rates, were no more true terminals, and no more entitled to terminal rates, than Santa Rosa, which suffered correspondingly by the discrimination.

OTHERS LOSE RATE.

"Very well," said the railroads, in substance, "if such is the case, we will equalize matters by leaving Santa Rosa's terminal privileges away from the other three points."

"If we are not true terminals for transcontinental traffic," retorted the three railroads, "then we know 182 other cities of California that are not either, although they have terminal rates. If we are to lose ours, they should lose theirs."

At that point such important centers of distribution as Stockton, Sacramento and many others were accurately interested.

Only San Diego, San Pedro (Los Angeles Harbor), Oakland and San Francisco were admitted by the protesting cities to be natural terminals.

ARGUMENT OF RAILROAD.

So the 182 cities in danger of losing their terminal rights and of fourteen railroads serving them are common cause. The argument of the railroads is that if terminal rates are to be allowed to none but seaports, which are natural centers of distribution, much of the goods distributed from those seaports would be carried by water, as soon as the Panama canal opens.

Points which had lost their terminal rates would supply themselves not directly by rail, but indirectly from the seaport. In other words, the railroads argue that the withdrawal of terminal rates from 182 cities of California would mean that the railroads would lose the transcontinental business of just that number of points, because they could no longer compete against the Panama canal.

HAVING ONE WIFE HE WRITES TO ANOTHER

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Discovering, after several years of married life, that her husband had another wife still living, Mrs. Beatrice Milan brought annulment proceedings which resulted in the cancellation of the marriage contract by Superior Judge Graham today.

Defendant, Hercules P. Milan, is manager of a Stockton music house.

The couple were wedded on June 5, 1911, in South Africa. Mrs. Milan testified on the stand this morning that hubby was very much agitated both before and after the wedding ceremony. When asked to explain, he said, she avers, that his mother was sick and that afterward she had died. Later, Mrs. Milan says, she discovered that her mother-in-law was very much alive.

On finding that Milan was corresponding with a woman signing the name Helene Milan, the wife says she asked him about it. He replied, she testified, that the woman was his sister but afterwards she discovered that it was his first wife.

MANITEN REQUEST IS NOT INDORSED

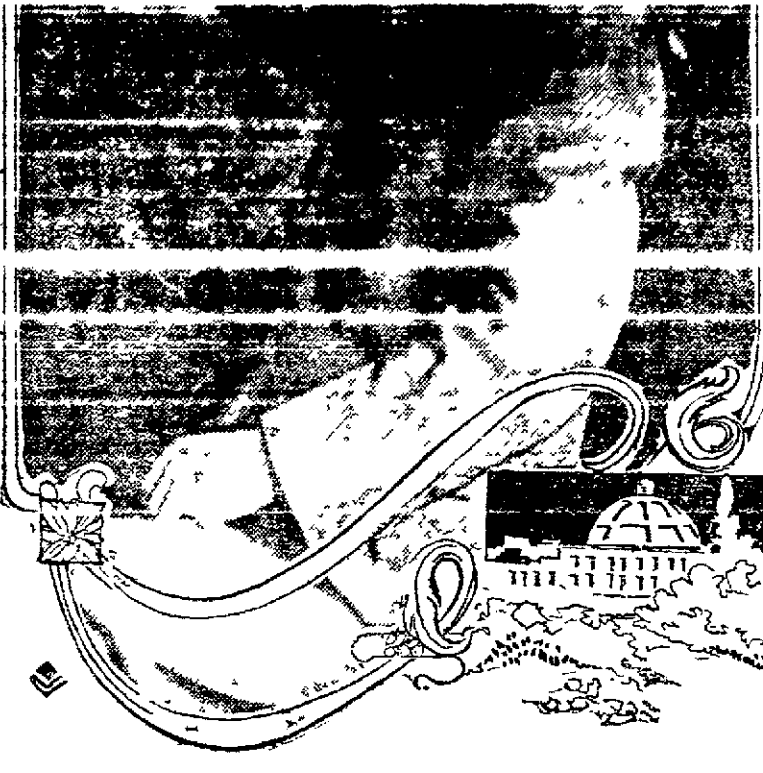

Civic Association Refers Resolution to Constituent Clubs Without Comment.

The request to the Tax Association to draft a new charter for the city of Oakland first made by the United Improvement Clubs last of 1-14, Mr. Maritt was last night received by the Civic Association to its constituent clubs without indorsement. The matter was placed before the body by Anson Hilton representing the executive committee. He recommended adoption of the request.

"We will get into trouble if we indorse this, knowing that there is a very divided sentiment," declared Charles Gorman. "We'd better make sure the clubs are not this. We are gotten in trouble before by indorsing things that the people did not want."

CHARLES BURCKHAUSER OF CHABOT OBSERVATORY, AND THE OLD TELESCOPE, WITH WHICH HE CAN'T ESCAPE THE LIGHTS OF THE CITY

Where will the new Chabot observatory be erected?

That is the question that begins the question of the Chabot observatory. The question is not whether the observatory, with its new telescope and apparatus, where the lights of the city will not make astronomical observations impossible.

But now the question is: Where in Oakland are there no lights? No one realized how well lighted a city Oakland is until they started to look for a place where there were no lights.

The Chabot observatory is to be erected as to near the glare which fills the sky from the electric lights of Oakland. This glare makes observations useless. It is for this reason that the old observatory is to be moved.

It is the duty of these new trustees to find a place where the new observatory can be erected.

LATEST WAIST IS LIKE NIGHTGOWN

Fashions Change Again; This Time for Cooler Models.

No, no, Percy, Mabel's not in her nightgown. It looks like a dressing saque. But the styles all say. To be really up to date. Girls must dress that way. Goodness knows they may wear soon. Nighties in the day.

NEW YORK, June 26.—Leaping lightly from blouse to basque butterfly fashion has now settled on a type of waist which hangs loosely from shoulder to hip for all the world like a regular dressing jacket. One model especially of flesh color crepe de chine hangs from a square cut neck edged with a tiny ruffling of pink picot ribbon. It is tucked in at the waist to the normal waistline and then flares out in untucked fullness to just below the knees.

Another through which the model is tucked in similar fashion to below the knees where it also flares out in a ruffling-edged flounce to the ankles. The elbow sleeves are tucked down half way to fluff out loosely over the elbow with the inevitable ruffling.

Truly an ideal negligee for home use these breezy days, the uninitiated would exclaim, but it's not, nav, on the home stuff. This little pink and pretty confection is intended for wear out among the smart set. It is a perfect preparation for a poor girl these days to decide whether she's destined to go out or to stay in.

Others of the models do concede more to the conventions and assume the indications of a girlish or sash loosely hung about the hips to save them from a too exact resemblance to a coming of age. The most approved of these hangs from the shoulders in a loose basque effect buttoned down the front and girdled about the hips with a wide crush sash of silk girdled of bow or ends. From this hangs either a flounce of lace or silk, the straight skirt underneath falling to the ankles. This, however, the general effect is ludicrously like a little girl's frock worn over a grownup's petticoat. Out of the frying pan of the dressing saque likeness into the fire of a child's dress similarity seems to be the unescapable stigma of this newest mode but in spite of this it is being flaunted numerous by the smartest dressers.

As for basques they are simply basking in popular fancy for the moment. Already they are creeping closer and lighter to the figure and corsetiers do say that a return of the hour glass figure and a rediscovery of the sixteen inch waistline is almost a certainty.

It was clench to let out our waists, but Heavens, you can't help shuddering over the inevitable struggles there will be to call 'em in again.

There's a perfect craze for jet again as a dress trimming for street and again time wear. Particularly in the form of fringe for the edging of basques, capes and parasols. Basque buttons are also very smart of jet. Both in the fringes and the banding trimmings tubular effects have replaced in novelty the old globular buttons and sequins. What an idea it is for a "waterfall" to appear in a costume all left. The waterfall of hair-flaxing is struggling to the fore and forward along with all other Victorian fashions. With soft curls bobbing in front of each ear and caught up in a loose knot behind there is no denying this coiffure is vastly more becoming than the universal peaked effect of the novel.

And germinal to the subject of surmounts adornment is the fact that no tortures of the inquisition were any worse than those endured by fragile flowers of femininity today when they are told to submit their heads for five and six hours to the slow suffering of having a permanent wave baked in their hair.

Of course it is done by electricity and the wave is guaranteed for one year. In this jocular season of ocean bathing the damped course with sleek straight locks becomes a martyr to beauty. You can just bet she isn't going to get the ocean wave anything on her in the nature of waves. She hies herself to the hairdressers and with Spartan fortitude she endures the slow torture of her bank roll and a kink in her nerves all at the very same sitting.

BATTLESHIPS FOR PACIFIC IS PLAN

Navy Department to Maintain Steady Complement Instead of Half Year.

VALLEJO, June 26.—A plan is under consideration in the Navy Department to divide the battleship fleet and maintain half of it with a permanent station on the Pacific Coast and the other half on the Atlantic Coast, according to word received by the navy officials at Mare Island.

It is reported that naval authorities regard this proposed plan as more feasible and effective than keeping the battleship fleet together as one body and sending it to the Pacific Coast for one-half of each year, as originally planned.

Transfer of the drill grounds from Guantanamo to Magdalena bay is also reported to be probable. If this is done, the Atlantic fleet, it is said, will visit Magdalena bay annually, beginning to the Pacific Coast instead of cruising to Europe, as at present.

Arrangements have been made at Mare Island for the docking of the German cruiser Nurnberg there on July 14. It is expected that the Nurnberg will remain two days.

COURT TO WEIGH HINDU EXCLUSION

British Columbia Drama Is Brought to Climax by Deportation.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 26.—With the signing last night by Malcolm J. Reid, head of the immigration department at Vancouver, of the official order deporting a Hindu, one of the most important steps was taken in the drama.

This action will supply a test case for the courts. An application for a writ of habeas corpus was made before Justice Murphy yesterday by J. Edward Bird, acting on behalf of the Hindu, and was refused. Bird will make application to the court of appeals at Victoria for a special sitting of that court to consider the appeal, which W. H. D. Ladner, counsel for the crown, will attend.

The application for a writ of habeas corpus was to override the deportation order, which, it was anticipated, would be made.

The order of deportation was made on the ground that this Hindu had, by coming indirectly here, by not having $20 in his possession and by being a laborer, contravened the orders in council. The order of deportation was signed by Reid and the finding of the board by Reid and P. Howard, the secretary of the board.

These are provided for in the 1915 budget and the officers named from the eligible list will be scattered in the different stations throughout the city. Chief of Police David A. White returns home from his trip East tonight and Acting Chief Shea will go back to the command of the detective bureau. The chief is expected almost immediately to appoint two detective sergeants. There are two vacancies caused by the death of Detective Robert Hogan and the transfer of Detective Sergeant H. H. Dobbin to Captain Moore's district to act as that Surman, in charge of the white slave bureau, will be given one of the berths and the two others mentioned for the remaining positions are Detectives John Manion of the pawnshop detail and Detective Michael Burke of the Mission district. Both have number one records in the department.

The pension board will meet on July 6. It is rumored that a dozen or more officers of all grades in the department are scheduled for retirement. At the last session three captains and a number of sergeants and patrolmen were banished from the department in this way. The demands made for police protection have caused Chief White and the commissioners to agree that whether or not a man is efficient he must be retired when the age limit is reached in the same manner as in the United States army.

Thomas Emigh, 231 Walsworth avenue is a brother of William Emigh, inspector of police, and of Milton Emigh, a patrolman, but this did not serve to protect him from a visit by a brave burglar who last night broke into his home and stole jewelry valued at $10. The two brothers have been detailed to assist in tracing the thief.

FEIGN INSANITY TO ESCAPE JAIL

Horse Thief McConnell Latest Suspect in Epidemic of Fake Dementia.

A series of strange cases have developed among the prisoners in the city and the county jail recently. Within the last few months several prisoners have pretended to be insane, hoping that they would be sent to an asylum from which they could easily escape. When ham McConnell, confessed horse thief, was committed to Stockton yesterday by Judge Donahue who expressed grave doubts as to the defendant's mental condition. After being committed McConnell changed his demeanor entirely when he was taken to the County Jail. Judge Donahue, Dr. O. D. Harlin and Dr. W. H. Irwin declared their belief that the prisoner was "faking."

On top of the McConnell matter came the confession of Joseph Cordano, accused of sending blackhand letters to members of the local Italian colony. Cordano while in jail manifested symptoms of insanity. He was taken to the County Hospital for observation and while there made several brutal attacks upon his attendants. Judge Donahue told him that he had been shamming insanity and ordered him back to jail. Then Cordano admitted to Deputy District Attorney Smith that the judge's suspicions had been correct.

Human Factors in Good Service

THERE are three parties to each telephone connection — the party who calls, the trained operator, and the party who answers.

The telephone user shares with the operator the responsibility for good service.

Accuracy in calling, promptness in answering, clear and deliberate talking and patience on the part of the user and the operator, are essentials of good service.

In making 26,000,000 calls daily, millions of telephone users become integral parts in the Bell system and contribute to the success of the service.

ADVENTISTS TAXED FOR MISSION WORK

California Conference Indorses Levy of 20 Cents a Week on Members.

The plan of the North American Division Conference of the Seventh Day Adventists to raise 20 cents a week per member in the United States this year, in addition to the tithe received endorsement in the California Conference today when a resolution favoring it was passed by the delegates. The plan was passed by a vote of 100 to 10. The average of 20 cents a week will bring $40 into the treasury of the California conference for use for foreign missionary work. This money will be raised largely in the Sabbath schools, although what are known as the "harvest ingatherings" and annual offerings will help swell the fund.

The effort to organize the membership of the denomination in a year also received the endorsement of the delegates. The World Conference plan is for every church member to "bring at least one person to Christ" during the year. "Every member a working member," being the slogan. Delegates in session at the camp ground have pledged every church in the local conference to organize for aggressive work.

A permanent summer school for teachers has been established at Pacific Union College at Helena and will be held this year from July 1 to August 15.

HELPED LORIMER, BORROWED MONEY

Former Senator Explains Notes in Ruined Bank as Business Deal.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 24.—Former United States Senator Thomas H. Pavner of Kentucky has issued a statement explaining how his notes, aggregating $40,000, found their way into the La Salle Street Bank of Chicago, controlled by William Lorimer and C. B. Munday, and which item, it was reported, was being investigated by Federal authorities in connection with their inquiry into that institution.

Pavner as Senator was a member of the first senatorial committee which investigated Lorimer's election to the Senate and he voted in favor of Lorimer's retaining his seat. "After my connection with the Lorimer committee had ceased," said Pavner, "I needed $40,000 to complete a business transaction, as I supposed for a few days. C. B. Munday told me he could take my four notes for $10,000 each and use them in Illinois banks—banks in which Lorimer had no interest. "Lorimer knew nothing whatever about this transaction. My deal was personal and I was unable to take

Reason of the fact that the jewels had been recorded Mrs. Lewis' bill at the hospital, the steward there would not accept them, and they were given to the physician. He left them in his automobile and forgetting them looked for them yesterday morning, but they had disappeared. McQuade is running down the clues and believes that each of the articles was in the bag when they were handed over to Dr. Toner.

Mrs. Lewis was one of Reno's wealthiest women and was well known throughout the State of Nevada. She came here on a visit and had left the Bellevue Hotel and was walking along O'Farrell street when a cable car ran over her.

The report of the robbery was made by Mrs. Della Doyd, a friend of the dead woman, who came here from Nevada City on learning of her predicament.

CAVALRY DETACHMENT WOUNDS JAPANESE

TULSA, Ark., June 24.—Thinking that a Japanese in a house in the Tulsa valley was firing at them, a passing detachment of United States negro cavalry yesterday fired several shots into the house. They were unaware that the Japanese was engaged in a rifle duel with an American rancher, who ordered the Japanese off his ranch after a quarrel.

Investigation proved that the Japanese was seriously wounded. He asserted that he was shot by soldiers and not by the rancher.

The rancher declared the attentions of the Japanese to American women on the ranch were offensive.

TRUST MEASURE EXPECTED TO PASS SOON

President's Declaration and Prosperity Prediction May Solidify Party Forces.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—President Wilson's emphatic declaration of the administration's intention to go straight ahead with its anti-trust program and place those measures on the statute books of the country with the prediction of parallel prosperity to follow, attracted widespread attention here today. In congressional circles especially the President's utterances were received with keen interest.

While the President's speech was addressed to members of the Virginia Press Association, it was meant for the entire nation. It was regarded as perhaps the most important message the President has given to the business world and as his final answer to those who oppose the enactment of the anti-trust program at the present session of Congress.

LANGUAGE IS CLEAR.
The President spoke in no uncertain terms and made it clear that he was determined to push to a conclusion the trust program. He reviewed the efforts of the administration to carry out other features of its program—the tariff and the currency law—which he said was attended by fear of business disturbance. When, however, those measures finally became law the feeling of uncertainty was relieved.

In Congress today it was expected that the President's announced attitude would have the effect of rallying Democrats to the plan to dispose of the trust program. The belief was further strengthened by the fact that the entire Missouri delegation in the House had pledged the President its aid in his fight against the trusts. It is felt here that Congress would complete the program at an early date was made evident in his address to the editors.

The Senate had before it again today the trade commission bill. It is now the unfinished business before that body.

Industrial Relation Commission Busied

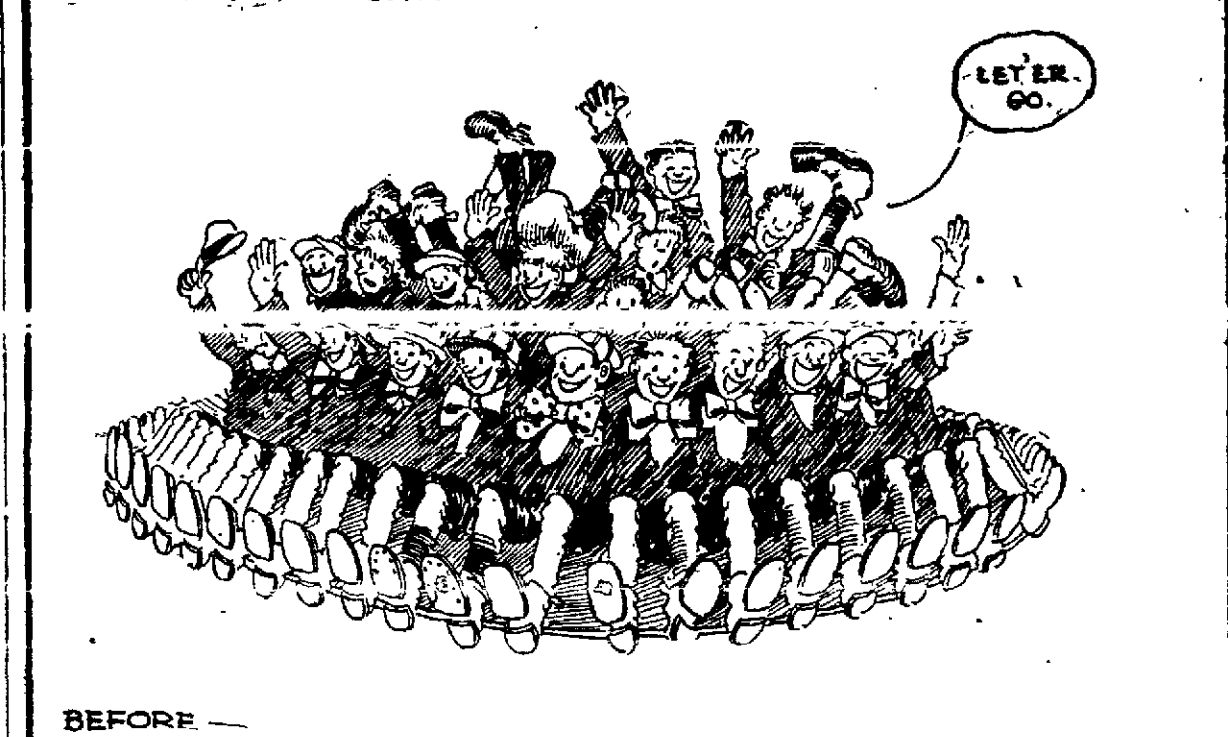

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—The United States commission on industrial relations authorized by congress under the Taft administration and the members of which were named by President Wilson is overwhelmed with work. The commission, which is sitting in Philadelphia this week, has had to extend its stay two days and has sufficient witnesses and material to work on to keep it here a month.

Four of the nine members comprising the commission, Frederick A. Delano and John B. Lennon, Illinois, James Weinstein, California, and Harris O'Connell, District of Columbia, are conducting the investigation here with Mr. Weinstein presiding.

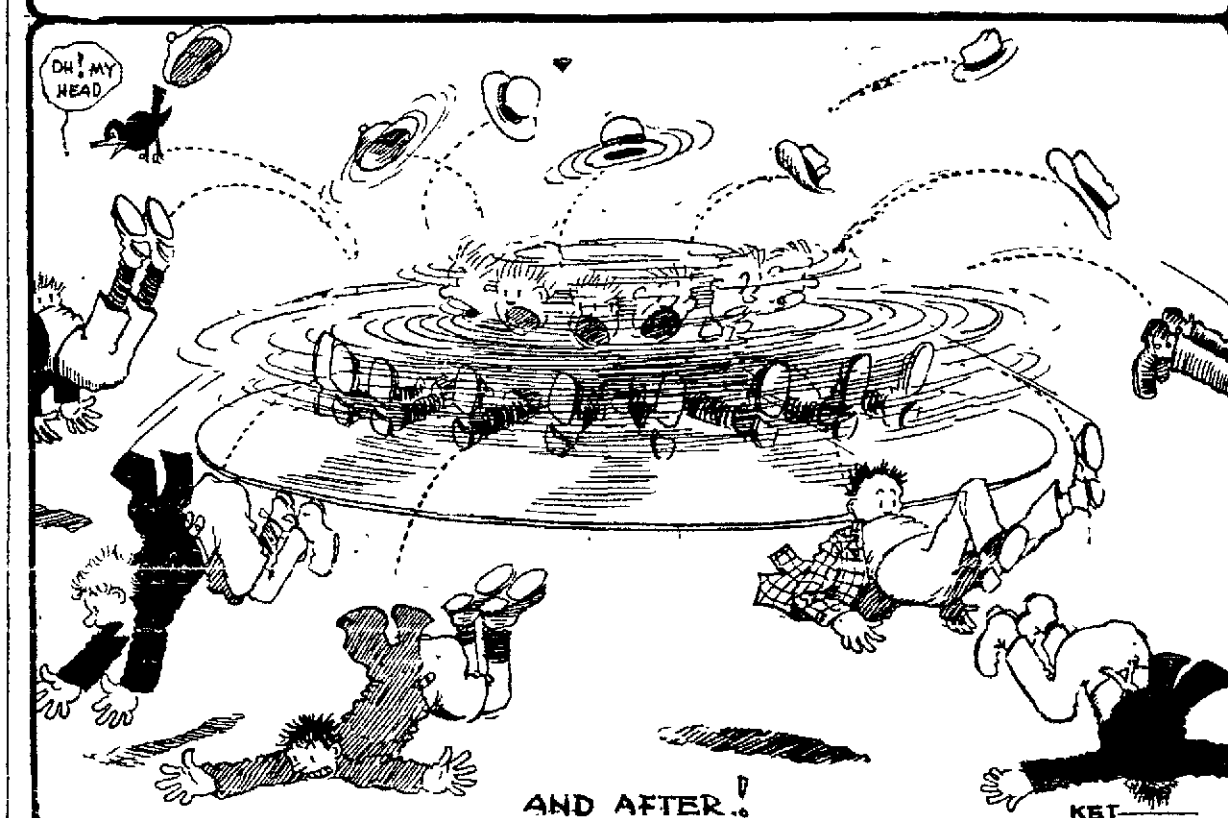

The tentative program calls for hearings in Seattle and Portland, August 17 to September 5; San Francisco, September 10 to 19; and Los Angeles, September 21 to 26.

Big piles of free Idora Park tickets, with which the public will on TRIBUNE DAY, June 30, visit the big amusement place, have disappeared daily since they were placed on distribution and every day they are still more in demand. Thousands of free tickets have already been given out, and the rush hasn't really started yet. Last year there were waiting lines before THE TRIBUNE office and its branches during the last two days. This TRIBUNE DAY distribution has already broken the record for the first three days of distribution last year.

The free tickets, which THE TRIBUNE is giving away to every man, woman or child who asks for them, will be good for admission to Idora park on June 30, day or night, as preferred, and will there be exchanged for the amusement coupons and numbered cycle car coupons at the gate. Each guest of THE TRIBUNE will be given passes to the park concessions.

The free tickets, now on distribution, may be obtained, not only from the stores throughout the city, but also at the following offices of THE TRIBUNE: TRIBUNE main office, Eighth street, near Franklin. TRIBUNE Berkeley branch office, 2142½ Shattuck avenue. TRIBUNE Alameda branch office, Park street and Santa Clara avenue.

TRIBUNE Fruitvale branch, Fruitvale avenue and East Fourteenth street. TRIBUNE DAY has established itself as one of the traditions of the bay region. Hundreds of out-of-town visitors flock to Oakland for the big day, and the whole bay region is interested. This year it will be bigger than ever before. Remember the date—June 30.

DON'T FORGET THE DATE—IT IS JUNE 30TH—BE THERE.

EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IS INVITED. THE TICKETS ARE FREE FOR THE ASKING, AND YOUR MONEY'S NO GOOD WHILE THE TRIBUNE IS HOST.

THREE KILLED IN GREAT FIRE AT SALEM

Relief Measures Are Taken;
Loss $10,000,000; 1000
Buildings Burn.

SALEM, MASS., June 25.—Relief for the thousands of sufferers from the great fire which wiped out a large section of this city last night poured in today in unlimited measure.

While the ruins of half the city were still smoldering actual want had been met and steps taken for business-like management of the situation.

The greatest loss has fallen on the factory employes, chiefly French-Canadian and Polish. These comprise a majority of the 10,000 who are homeless, and they have lost not only their homes and personal belongings but their employment.

The loss to the mill companies, commercial houses, city institutions and churches is protected to a large extent by insurance.

The assessors estimate the total money loss at $10,000,000.

The loss of life, as far as known, was restricted to three persons:

MRS. JENNIE CUNNINGHAM, whose body was recovered from her tenement home on Lafayette street.

SAMUEL P. WITHEY, burned to death in his home on Prescott street, to which he had returned to save some personal belongings after he had once escaped.

A third body, found in the mill district, but so badly burned that it was impossible to determine the sex.

PLAN RELIEF.

The city government met today and adopted a relief plan. This provides for the establishment of three relief stations and the transfer for sanitary reasons of the homeless ones from public halls and churches to the tenement houses on the baseball park and the common. There will be a tent colony of 5000 people in the baseball park.

Prompt response was made to a public appeal for relief issued by Governor Walsh. Henry C. Pittsburg sent a check for $25,000.

Wagons and automobiles loaded with food began to arrive from surrounding cities at daylight and city officials supervised its distribution with the idea of best providing for those in actual want.

Before the fire had been fully checked relief measures and plans for rebuilding were under way. Governor Walsh, Lieutenant Governor Barry and Secretary of State Donohue spent the night here. The governor announced tents and 10,000 rations would be shipped to the city at once. He also issued a call for a public meeting in Boston to take further action.

HISTORIC RELICS SAVED.

In the midst of the gloom caused by the staggering blow to the city residents found cause for thankfulness in the fact that the more noted buildings and the museums, with their priceless collections of antiquities were saved.

The birthplace of Nathaniel Hawthorne, the house of seven gables, and the old customs house were threatened for a time and the flames appeared dangerously close to the Peabody museum and the Essex institute, but none of these structures was damaged.

The militia, summoned to assist in maintaining order, patrolled the streets today. Martial law was not declared, but no one was permitted to approach the fire swept area without a pass. Only one attempt at looting was discovered.

On the common and in open spaces in the outskirts of the city thousands of refugees tried to find a little rest during the night. Many stretched themselves out on the grass; others managed to save mattresses or rolled up blankets for the night.

Little groups huddled together about piles of household goods.

EXPLOSION ROCKS CITY.

From 2 o'clock yesterday, when a terrific explosion occurred in the factory of the Kohn Leather Company, at Proctor and Boston streets, the flames raged practically unchecked until midnight.

The explosion is thought to have occurred among chemicals used in the manufacture of patent leather. This factory stood near the foot of Gallows Hill, famous as the hanging place of witches in the early colonial days, at the western end of the city.

A shift in the wind sent the fire northward along Lafayette street, where scores of the city's finest residences were burned. The fire spread to another manufacturing center on the shores of the harbor and destroyed large factories.

In the intervening hours hundreds of houses were swept away. The Salem hospital was among the buildings burned, but all the patients were rescued.

Great quantities of apparatus from neighboring cities assisted in fighting the flames. To the eastward they burned themselves out at the water's edge. The final stand was made near the Boston and Maine railroad station. Here several buildings were dynamited and the firemen at last gained the upper hand, saving the northeastern part of the city.

A separate fire, which the police say was of incendiary origin, destroyed thirteen dwellings in North Salem.

RED CROSS RELIEF.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Ernest P. Bicknell, national director of the Red Cross, left today for Salem to direct relief work. The Red Cross has sent $50,000 and is prepared to raise a large fund if necessary. Mabel T. Boardman, chairman of the national relief board of the Red Cross, will also go to Salem.

Bicknell also requested the Associated Charities of Boston, an institutional member of the Red Cross, to offer its services to the stricken city.

Secretary of War Garrison, after a conference with Representative Gardner of Massachusetts, called on Colonel H. A. Hawthorne at Fort Warren, in Boston harbor, to form

Sex Hygiene in Sunday Schools Is Approved in Report

CHICAGO, June 25.—The teaching of sex hygiene in Sunday schools was approved today in the report to the convention of International Sunday Schools' Association by E. A. Mohr, superintendent of the purity department.

"Sex knowledge will be taught," said Mohr. "If not in the home and the Sunday school, it will be taught in the street. Silence is criminal. We cannot remain inactive. We must teach these facts and teach them right, so that knowledge may lead to purity and

Death Ends Career of Venezuelan Minister

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Private dispatches received at the Pan-American Union early today reported the death of a Venezuelan minister.

Dr. Rojas, who was 70 years of age, died of heart failure, with which he had been threatened for several years. He was prominently identified with the politics of his country. He had been thrown into dungeons during several revolutionary periods, and for many years was compelled to live an exile from Venezuela.

Dr. Rojas has been minister here for the last five years and had been minister to Argentina and Chile. At one time he was president of the national congress of Venezuela and he also has been a representative and senator.

The new independent union continued signing members. So far 1430 names, according to officials of the union, have been placed on the membership roll. The new union will hold its first meeting next Tuesday.

Women Gets Bail in Strange Death Case

STAMFORD, Conn., June 25.—Mrs. Helen M. Angie, who has been held on a coroner's order pending inquiry into the somewhat mysterious death on Tuesday night of Waldo R. Ballou, a member of a prominent Stamford family, was last night released in bonds of $5000 by order of Coroner Pearson. Bonds were furnished by her father, Leonard Blondel.

Mrs. Angie, on the stand, at the inquest late yesterday, refused to answer questions and finally withdrew, falling out of the witness chair.

Greek Naval Reserves Called to the Colors

ATHENS, Greece, June 25.—Seven classes of the Greek naval reserves were today called to the colors, the official explanation of the mobilization being "the increase of the fleet and the naval maneuvers to begin at sea."

The real reason for the step taken by the ministry of marine, however, is understood to be the determination of the Greek government to be prepared for all eventualities, although there is an apparent slackening of the tension between Turkey and Greece.

BOTH JOHNSON AND MORAN CONFIDENT

Tickets Sold for Paris Fight
Tomorrow Amount to $100,000.

PARIS, June 25.—Both Jack Johnson, heavy weight champion of the world, and Frank Moran of Pittsburg, challenger for the title, declared their training today and each of them declared himself in the best possible condition for their contest tomorrow night.

Johnson sent to his mother in Chicago today, while a friend of Moran, who visited him at his training quarters at Meudon on the Seine, said that the challenger was no less confident.

The advance sale of seats indicated there will be a great crowd at the Veidrome stadium where the fight starts at 10:30 tomorrow night. It is understood that among those who have purchased tickets are many women, some of whom never miss an important boxing match in Paris.

The poor of Paris will realize a good sum as the result of the fight, as it is calculated that receipts will reach at least $100,000 and according to the law ten per cent is added to the price of each ticket for the benefit of the poor.

The selection of George Carpentier, the French champion, as referee, was also considered likely to draw a large following, as he is an idol among the Parisians.

A complete report of conditions in Salem, Garrison said the army would co-operate in the relief work if the Massachusetts authorities found their resources inadequate.

President Wilson sent the following telegram to Governor Walsh:

"I am sure I speak for the American people in tendering heartfelt sympathy to you and to the people of the stricken city of Salem. Can the federal government be of service in the emergency?"

GOVERNOR ASKS FOR TROOPS IN BUTTE

President Wilson Takes Request From Montana Before Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Governor Stewart of Montana today asked that federal troops be transferred from Fort Vancouver to Fort Missoula, in order to be in readiness in case of further trouble at Butte. Senator Meers called at the White House to support the governor's request. He stated conditions in Butte were unsettled and further outbreaks might occur at any time.

There are no federal troops in Montana at present, and it is a matter of serious concern that it would take too long to bring them from Fort Vancouver for them to be of any service.

President Wilson took the request under advisement and later took it up at the cabinet meeting.

OLD UNION REOPENS.

BUTTE, Mont., June 25.—Members loyal to the Butte Local No. 1, Western Federation of Miners, are expected to reopen here today offices for transaction of the union's business. President Charles H. Moyer of the Federation, who sought refuge in Helena after the riot and destruction of the miners' union here Tuesday night, gave the order for reopening to his followers.

The new independent union continued signing members. So far 1430 names, according to officials of the union, have been placed on the membership roll. The new union will hold its first meeting next Tuesday.

MAYOR WARNS MOYER.

ANACONDA, Mont., June 25.—On hearing that President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners, intended to come to this city from Helena to address the members of the mill and smelter men's union, Mayor O'Brien wired the labor official that he believed such a visit would be unwise at this time. In his message the mayor said:

"The business men and members of the Anaconda union deem it inadvisable that you should visit us at this time. We have utmost fear for your personal safety, due to the proximity of this city to Butte. You would be protected if you came, and if hostility were shown you, we would have to remove your visit to a more propitious time."

The mayor has received no reply.

MOYER SEES I. W. W. MOVE.

HELENA, Mont., June 25.—The wrecking crew of the Industrial Workers of the World, the force at work in Butte, have been ordered to leave the city by the Western Federation of Miners. "I have positive information that at least 600 I. W. W. agitators have arrived in Butte within the last few weeks. One hundred and forty of them got the train in Butte in one day."

Asked for an explanation of the statement of President McDonald to the effect that the new union was to be rid of the I. W. W. element, Moyer replied: "That merely is a blind. The I. W. W. has gone too far in showing its hand in Butte, and some of the known agitators will be ordered to leave the city in order to restore public confidence in the so-called union. The result, however, will be the same. They started in to get me six years ago, and, failing in that, they are now determined to get the federation."

tion of returning to Butte at the present time.

Four Electrocuted by Charged Elevator Rope

BOSTON, June 25.—Four men were electrocuted in a peculiar manner at the Quincy Market Cold Storage Company plant last night. An elevator rope with a metal core which had been cut by the ranks in order to restore public confidence in the so-called union. The result, however, will be the same. They started in to get me six years ago, and, failing in that, they are now determined to get the federation."

Chinese Soldiers Mutiny, Loot and Burn City

LONDON, June 25.—A dispatch from Shanghai says the Chinese garrison at Kalgan, composed of 6000 soldiers, mutinied and then looted and burned the city, killing all who resisted them. The women were attacked and many of them carried off.

The orgies of the mutinous troops lasted until daybreak, when they evacuated the city.

SHORB BLACKHAND LETTERS CEASE

Divorce Case Principals Receive No Further Anonymous Communications.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—No further anonymous letters have been received by the principals in the Shorb divorce case, according to Attorney
Charles A. Lee, counsel for Donald
McM. Shorb. This is the first day since the case was called in Judge Van Nostrand's court that one of the blackhand notes signed with a skull and crossbones has not found its way to the mails of either Shorb or his counsel.
The postal authorities were busy this morning going through the routine of looking up the sender of the mysterious letters and the publicity attaching thereto, it is believed, may cause information to come to the authorities leading to the possible arrest of the culprit.
The threats of death to Judge Van Nostrand, Shorb and his attorney, as contained in the letters, are sufficient to earn a long term in prison for the writer providing he or she be apprehended.
Mrs. Adeline D. Shorb, the wife who is suing for divorce, has so far failed to make any statement in connection with the case and it is believed is determined to obtain her divorce if possible. On the other hand

she may yet succumb to the entreaties of her millionaire husband to become reconciled for the sake of the two beautiful little girls whom both parents love.

It is quite probable that when the case is called on July 7 some evidence regarding the anonymous notes may be uncovered and they may be made part of the court records.

ELOPERS OUTWIT PAPA AND SHERIFF

Miss Anna Wolf and Harry M.
Hayes, Aged 18, United at Martinez.

Before Sheriff Veale of Contra Costa could interfere, Miss Anna H. Wolf, a bookkeeper in the employment of an Oakland printing company, and Harry
M. Hayes of Alameda, were married
Thursday in Martinez by the Rev. E.
Gianden Davies of Grace Episcopal Church. When procuring the license the bride gave her age as 24, and the groom, who is only eighteen, gave his as 22.

Surprised on hearing of the elopement, and considering his son too young for marital responsibilities, his father, G. F.
Hayes, a painting contractor of 3809 Euclid avenue, Alameda, telephoned to Sheriff Veale to place the couple under arrest. The law, however, proved too slow. Before the Sheriff started on their track, the elopers had left Martinez, the bride returning to 392 Santa Clara avenue, where she lives with the family of Charles Book, and the groom was on his way to effect a reconciliation with his relatives.

Threats of annulling the ceremony followed, but have been dropped. "The best thing now is to let it go on," said
Mrs. Hayes, Sr.

The bride, who comes into a Fresno estate next year, plans to visit a sister in that city. Her husband will join her later.

GIRL DRAWS LOTS

TO PICK NOMINEES

Ties in Oregon Primaries Are Settled by Stenographer's Intervention.

STENO, Oct. 20.—Miss Violet Welborn, chief stenographer in the office of Secretary of State Olcott, was the good angel who handed nominations to eight aspirants for office today. There were six ties in the recent statewide primary for Progressive nominations and one for a Democratic nomination. The law provides they must be settled by drawing lots.

The aspirants for office present and representatives of others, agreed that the drawing of the names from a box should be done by Miss Welborn. As a result of the drawings, nominations were conferred as follows:

State Senator, Third District, I. H. Penhamb, Democrat; State Senator, Sixth District, H. von der Hellen, Progressive; State Senator, Fifteenth District, C. A. Lieneweber, Progressive, Representative, Second District, B. H. Pierce, Third

"DRY" ORDER REACHES SHIPS IN THE BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Secretary of the Navy Daniel C. Rodgers, making the United States Navy "dry," has at last filtered out this far, officially. Unofficially it has been known for several weeks that the "hardroom" was to bar every beverage containing alcohol.

The first copy was received yesterday by the cruiser St. Louis. Immediately the command became the object of close scrutiny. Even "near beer" which usually contains 1 or 2 per cent of alcohol, is under the ban.

Copies of the order will be received by every vessel in these waters within the next few days. Other copies are on the way to the fleet off the west coast of Mexico and to the Asiatic station.

The hardrooms will be nonalcoholic after July 1. The official notification cannot take to the fleet in the south or to the Asiatic squadron until after that day, and local naval officers are discussing whether their brother officers on those fleets will take the official news as sufficient on which to act, or will wait until the official notification arrives.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION PERFECTS ORGANIZATION

The Tourist Association of Central California has completed its organization and will commence business next Monday. At a meeting held yesterday in San Francisco Commercial Club, Frederick Whitton, representing the San Francisco chamber of commerce, was re-elected president, Leon A. Clark representing the Alameda county super-visors, and E. D. Moore, managing director.

Representatives will be sent to Eastern cities at once and four publicity experts will remain in the local field. Information will be sent out and furnished travelers as to resorts and scenic properties of the state.

THE MAGNATE WAILS.
Where are the fans of yesterday? The geeks who used to cram my till with all the shekels they could spare in clanking metal and murky mull? Why did they hike over yonder hill and leave me here in sadness drear? To foot alone each blossom bill—Where are the fans of yesterday?

The sliding of Walter Johnson this year has caused much comment. The pitcher in looking over the records finds that only 23 times up to his defeat at the hands of Hank Johnson on June 1. Of 23 defeats, 19 were against the Washington star, the Athletics dealt nine, the Red Sox three, the New York Yankees two and the Yanks, White Sox and Tigers one each.

Hear that Walter Johnson's loyalty to organized baseball grows with every game he loses.

Which leads us around to the case of Carl Mays. The big blonde pitcher has finally struck his stride with the Providence Grays and has won four games against three losses.

But Mays' pitching is in a for alongside his batting. Mays led the Northwest league last season at bat and he is far out in the lead in the International league. His last average was .455 and it was still going up.

Some day Mays is going to get wise and quit pitching in favor of an outfield berth. He has remarkable speed for a big fellow and is as natural a sprinter as has graced these parts in many years.

St. Louis fans can hardly realize that they have two clubs in the first division. This is the first time that such an occurrence has been staged in the Mound City since the days of the late Chris Vonderheide when he had command of the famous Brown Stockings.

Since Joe Jackson has been out of the Naps' lineup, Cleveland has won five out of six games. We are not casting any reflections on the ability of the mighty southerner out it does seem that his absence has improved the luckless Naps.

Claude Cooper, the young outfielder who has been making a name for himself by offering $7000 a year and $2000 a week in prize money to the St. Louis Browns, was a member of the Giants last season. Claude lifted the pill at a .300 clip in 20 games.

In fact, traveling in the Federal league circuit has caused a violent shakeup in several major leagues who described or named players to become members of the Junior circuit.

A certain percentage of those who fell victims to the dazzling offers of the Feds have been the players of the Federal circuit. In the case of the St. Louis Browns, the St. Louis Browns last year; Al Bridwell, former Chicago Cub star; Knabe, former of the Boston Braves, and F. Smith, another Boston jumper, are the center of late big league players who have hit a slump during their Federal career.

Many of the former National and American league performers are now in the Federal circuit. The St. Louis Browns last year; Al Bridwell, former Chicago Cub star; Knabe, former of the Boston Braves, and F. Smith, another Boston jumper, are the center of late big league players who have hit a slump during their Federal career.

It will be Hub Pernell against Doc White across the bay this afternoon.

Tommy Quinlan was the real nose in the third inning. This youngster always seems to do better away from home than where the bugs are prepared to give him a hand.

Quinlan started the game with a safety, went from first to third on a sacrifice and scored on an infield out.

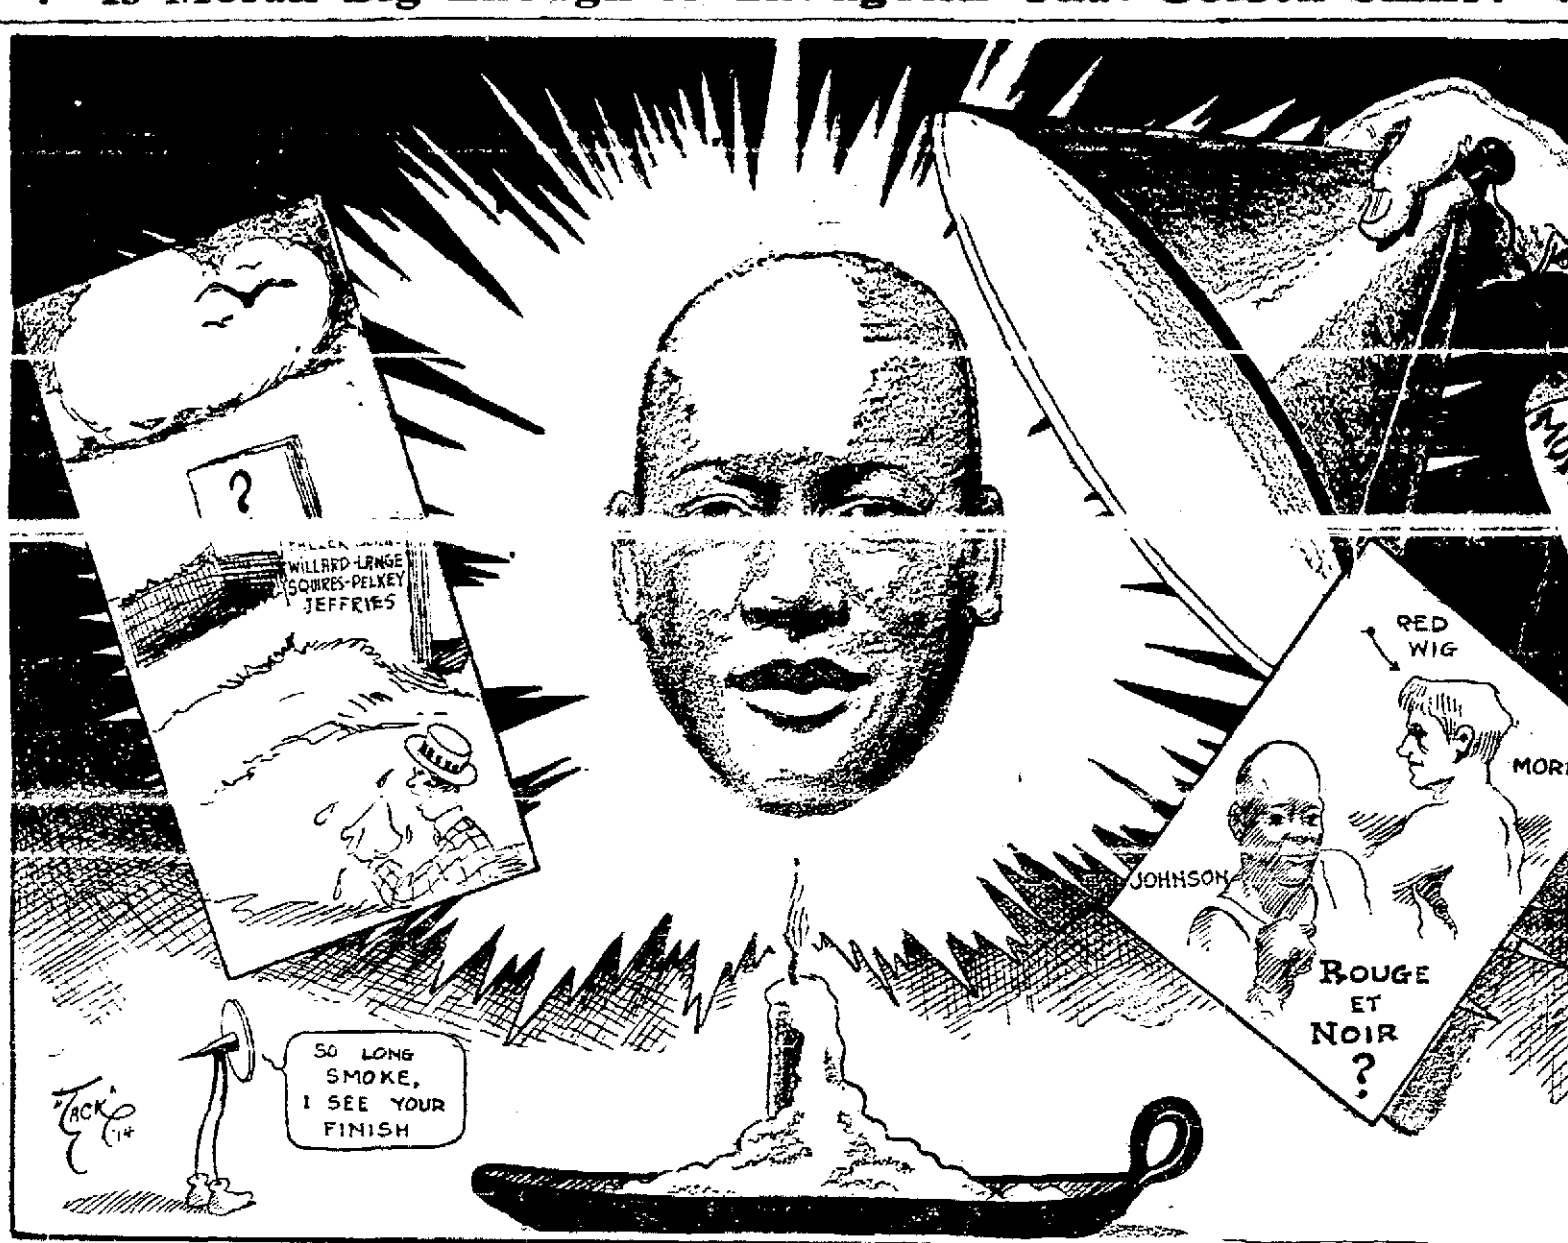

In the third, Quinlan made the circuit of the base when his drive to right lodged in the wire screen above the fence. In the eighth, when young Krenner and his support blew up, Quinlan scored the first two of the six runs with a single, his third hit. All told, that eighth inning comprised singles by Guest, Quinlan, Gardner and Kaylor, a walk and hit batter, two steals and errors by Heilman and Orr.

Russ Hall, former Northwestern league manager, who has been umpire in the Western Tri-State league, has been signed by Iron Man McGinnity as bench manager of the Tacoma Tigers. McGinnity will continue to serve his turn in the box, and still own the club, but Hall will have charge of the team on the field.

CHINESE TEAM WINS 47 OUT OF 64

The Chinese ball team from Honolulu university, which has been traveling through the United States, has surprised the followers of the game by completing a schedule of 64 games, with 47 victories, 17 defeats and two ties. Their schedule started in this part of the country, and the celestials have played their way to New York, where they recently defeated Columbia university.

The team is one of the strongest college teams ever seen in the east, and several of the players have received offers from professional clubs.

Captain Akana is highly pleased with the treatment afforded the team by the American colleges, but says that the team encountered some tough bumping when they played some of the league teams in the west.

CHIP AND MURRAY DRAW CROWDS TO TRAINING QUARTERS

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)
George Chip and Billy Murray attracted large crowds at their respective training quarters where the rival middleweights who are matched for July 4th are conditioning themselves.

Pameter Coffroth was the host to a large crowd of prominent boxing fans who went to the Seal Rock house to see Murray work. The Californian weighed 158 pounds, and was seemingly in the best of condition, but the spectators who saw him work were disappointed in the way he worked. Billy was apparently by state, as his boxing was at times slow. Against his sparring partners he was a mark for a right hand punch, and that is one thing he will have to avoid while in the ring with Chip. The Easterner certainly has a hard right, and unless Murray is able to beat him to that punch the local boy will go the same route that Petrosky went.

Tommy McCarthy won a twelve round decision over Jack Lester last night at Denver. McCarthy had eleven rounds, and one was about even. The latter's fighting was clean and fast, while Lester was frequently hanging on to avoid a knockout.

Local betting on the Johnson-Moran bout, which takes place in Paris tomorrow night, places the black as a long favorite. The betting is generally at 5 to 1, but some are placing their money on the black at rates as high as 4 to 1.

Willie Beecher writes from the East that he has been reached for a September bout with Joe Ascareo. Jimmy Nolan, Ascareo's manager, has heard nothing of the match.

The betting on the bout at this time shows a decided Chip tendency, and there will undoubtedly be odds in his favor before the first of next week.

Charles Horn, the local heavyweight, and his match with Mike Gibbons?

Fight Fans Turn Eye Glasses Abroad

Beginning tomorrow the world's pugilistic stage will be shifted to Europe. Three battles are scheduled to be waged in two weeks which are sure to make ring history. Frank Moran of Pittsburgh will endeavor to wrest from Jack Johnson the world's heavyweight title in Paris on Grand Prix night. On July 16, in the Olympic stadium, Gunboat Smith will endeavor to prove in a twenty-round bout against Georges Carpentier, the French idol and champion of Europe, that he is a serious contender for the heavyweight crown. On July 7 Freddie Welsh, champion of Great Britain, holder of the Lord Londsdale belt, will make a supreme effort after two years' wrangling to beat Willie Ritchie, the American lightweight titleholder, for the world's honors.

Who went to Australia with Tommy Burns, returned yesterday on the steamer Sonoma. Arthur Pelley and Montana Dan Sullivan expected to return on the same boat, but decided to stay over at the last moment. Burns was scheduled to leave for Denver next Wednesday and spend three weeks getting acclimated.

Kid Williams, who recently took the bantamweight championship from John Corbett, has proven himself a busy boy by signing up with one of the toughest bantams in the ring, Charles Le Douar, the French champion, for 20 rounds. The pair met once before in New Orleans, Le Douar being counted out when he went down claiming a foul. The last bout lasted for 15 rounds, and was a very even match up to the time Le Douar claimed the foul.

What's become of Packey McFarland and his match with Mike Gibbons?

But one player—Jack Neville—is left of the eight California golfers that originally started play at Seattle for the Northwest tourney.

Results yesterday of third round: H. Chandler Egan defeated Robin V. Havne, Burlingame, 5 up and 4 to play. Paul Ford (Oakland) defeated Edwin S. Armstrong, 1 up.

Jack Neville, Claremont, defeated O. Fetter, 2 up and 3 to play. A. V. Macan of Victoria defeated W. E. Burns of Vancouver, 3 up and 1 to play.

Today's semi-final matches: Jack Neville vs. A. V. Macan, Paul Ford vs. H. Chandler Egan.

FIFTEEN CREWS TUNED UP FOR TODAY'S BIG SHELL RACE

Six Universities Compete in Twentieth Annual Regatta.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 26. — Fifteen crews representing six of the 12 American colleges which summer regatta meet here late today in the 20th annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing association to decide the varsity championship of 1914. The regatta entry is a most formidable one, including eight from eastern, middlewestern and far western universities, and the contests in all these events are expected to be fully up to the standards of recent years when the regatta was held.

The regatta program, which forms the majority of the summer regatta, is a hard fought and that the possibility of a victory by one of the less favored crews is not too remote to be given careful consideration. Columbia has a strong following as well as Syracuse, the 1913 winner in the four mile contest. The University of Washington eight, the Pacific coast champions, is also considered formidable both on this season's showing and the form displayed last year when the westerners won third place.

Year by the presence of eight or second varsity or junior crews in place of the four additional teams figured in the annual race since 1899.

This innovation has been under consideration by the board of stewards for several years but it was not until last fall that it was decided to make the change. The reason that led to the alteration in the program was the fact that the four varsity teams, which were hard to manage and rowsed out of their courses and frequently endangered other crews. The new system also provides for four additional teams, who otherwise would be forced out of the regatta after training all season for the races.

The four eastern universities, Syracuse, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania are the only ones to enter eight in the new class this year. Neither Washington nor Washington is represented in the junior races. In the freshmen eight Wisconsin has entered a crew which gives five entries for the event while the varsity four miles race will have eight from all six institutions at the starting line.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 24. — Re-erut pitcher Kramer was hit rather freely in the pines and was given poor support, while Proulx pitched about well for Oakland and he was safely in front with an eight-run lead in the last inning. Then he slackened his pace and the Angels came back to win the game, 8-3. Sammy Horn, a local high school pitcher, was the hero of the day, hitting for the Wolves and his infield out ended the game when the locals still had two men on bases with five runs and the score, 5-3. Quinlan drove in two Oakland runs and scored three himself.

LOS ANGELES, June 24. — With a touch of the same form shown on the last northern tour, Los Angeles shut out Portland and found Krause for a round dozen safe hits. Hughes, who now has quite a string of victories at his belt, was the hero of the day, playing the whole nine innings, he joined the belligerent Angels and to the eighth inning swatted out a two-run homer that sealed the victory. The contract was awarded the local firm despite the fact that a San Francisco yard bid $5000 less on the contract, the San Francisco Oakland Terminal Railroad deciding to have the work done in Oakland rather than across the bay. The new ferry boat will be 250 ft long over all, 62 1/2 feet wide over the guards, with a moulded width of 42 feet and

LOS ANGELES, June 24. — With a touch of the same form shown on the last northern tour, Los Angeles shut out Portland and found Krause for a round dozen safe hits. Hughes, who now has quite a string of victories at his belt, was the hero of the day, playing the whole nine innings, he joined the belligerent Angels and to the eighth inning swatted out a two-run homer that sealed the victory. The contract was awarded the local firm despite the fact that a San Francisco yard bid $5000 less on the contract, the San Francisco Oakland Terminal Railroad deciding to have the work done in Oakland rather than across the bay. The new ferry boat will be 250 ft long over all, 62 1/2 feet wide over the guards, with a moulded width of 42 feet and

REINHARDT LEFT NO WILL, IS SAID

Search for Document Is Abandoned, Classmate Asks for Letters.

BERKELEY, June 28. — Search for a will of the late Dr. George F. Reinhardt, university physician and head of the department of hygiene, has been practically abandoned, according to a statement of Duncan McDuffie, a classmate and intimate friend of the late physician. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ASKS BETTER STREETS.

The meeting of the board of directors of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce responded favorably to the adopted resolution depicting the wretched condition of the streets in certain parts of the city, due largely to the neglect of the public service corporation, and they will endeavor to secure proper condition after making their service connections.

The resolution recommended that "the streets be repaired at once, repair defective places, using the funds on deposit with the city for that purpose." Special attention was drawn to the bad condition of the streets, which is deteriorating because of neglect.

Improved school conditions, a civic development and the creation of a highway were also subjects of discussion. A vote was given the $75,000 bond election project.

Unanimous indorsement was given the Fourth of July celebration, which will be held in August next month. The invitation of Pleasanton to participate in the patriotic demonstration on the glorious in the San Jose high school, addressed the directors, giving an account of the activities of the junior Chamber of Commerce of San Jose.
